The Honduras Cross, above the central altar platform, symbolizes St. Mark's connection with the broader Anglican Communion and our obligations to our sisters and brothers around the world, particularly with our sister congregations in the San Marcos Cluster in Honduras. Eileen Blumenthal and the 2000 Mission to Honduras designed the cross, and Eileen commissioned its construction in Honduras as a gift to St. Mark's community .

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Opening Sentences

Presider Gracious God, your love and justice will last for ever, fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,

People Great is your name. Great is your love.

Presider Holy God,

People Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

Silence is observed.

The Collect

Presider God be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

All Lord of abundance, you demand our life entire and whole: lead us out from prisons of greed to a place of riches uncontained and always new; through Jesus Christ, our common wealth. Amen.

The First Reading Ecclesiastes 1:2, 12-14; 2:18-23

Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity.

I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem, applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with. I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun; and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind.

I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to those who come after me -- and who knows whether they will be wise or foolish? Yet they will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labors under the sun, because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun? For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity..

Reader Let us hear what the Spirit says to us.

People Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed.

The Holy Gospel Luke 12:13-21

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus according to Luke.

People Glory to you, O Christ.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus.
People Praise to you, O Christ.

The Homily

The Reverend R. Justice Schunior

Music for Meditation

A period of silence is observed.

An Affirmation

Presider Let us affirm our faith together:
People We believe in God the Creator,
 By whom every person in heaven and on earth is named.
We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love.
We believe in God the Holy Spirit,
 who strengthens us with power from on high.
We believe in one God: Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Leader God of love and compassion, you are always more ready to hear and help than we are to pray; help us to know that you are with us now and always. We pray for all who come to your church with hopes and fears, all who come with special needs, that in you they may find new hope. We remember all who thirst for God, we pray for pilgrims and seekers.

 Lord, we wait upon you
People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We pray for our troubled world, for places of oppression, tyranny and violence. We remember all who suffer through war or natural disasters. We ask your blessing upon the hungry and the homeless, all who have no place to call their own.

 Lord, we wait upon you
People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We give thanks for all who have shared their love and peace with us; we pray for our homes and our loved ones. We pray for homes where there is trouble, for destitute families, for those who have been evicted or driven out of their homes. We pray for homes where there is abuse or neglect.

 Lord, we wait upon you
People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We remember before you all who are not at peace with themselves or their neighbors, all who are troubled in body, mind or spirit. We pray for all who feel despised or rejected, all who walk in fear and in darkness. We pray for members of our community who are ill, who are in pain, emotionally or physically.
Lord, we wait upon you

People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We give thanks that you are our strength in times of weakness; you deliver us from the power of death. We pray for loved ones departed this life.

Lord, we wait upon you

People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We invite all to offer prayers of petition, intercession, or thanksgiving silently or if aloud, ending with "This is my prayer," to which all will respond, "Amen."

A time for individual prayers is observed.

Leader Let us pray.

People We offer our prayers in the faith that you, O God, love us, that Jesus our risen brother walks with us, and that the Holy Spirit strengthens us. Amen.

A Prayer of Confession

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is observed.

People Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

Presider God forgives you; forgive yourself and go in peace.

All Amen.

The Peace

Presider God's peace be always with you.

People And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Eucharistic Prayer

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider God of wind and flame, we praise your wild beauty flying free. Your spirit nurtured life in outrageous diversity; she raised up judges to protect the weak, made kings dance in ecstasy, and prophets burn with holy anger.

Through the Spirit, the Word became flesh and the world was called to hear his voice; she drove him to the desert his first sure step to victory over death and division.

When he left his followers, she was poured out on all flesh and crossed the line between male and female, cisgender and transgender, slave and free, Jew and gentile.

She is with us now, bringing Christ near filling our worship, guiding us in hope.

Therefore, with all God's people, and all who have tasted the Spirit of life, with the thirsty and the cold, and all who long to dream again, we worship your glory as heaven touches earth:

Sanctus

All Holy, Holy, Holy Lord,
God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are filled with your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Presider O God, we bid the breath of your Spirit fall upon us and upon these gifts that they may be to us the body and blood of our lord and brother, Jesus Christ; who on the night before he died gathered with his friends. Calling them to his table, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and said: "This, my body, I give to you. Eat and remember me."

After supper, he took the cup, saying: "This, my blood, I pour out for you and for all. Drink and remember me." As on that night, so here and now, Jesus offers himself to us.

Great is the mystery of faith.

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider Therefore, in our partaking, filled with his life-giving presence, we proclaim him anew as the one we follow, the one who sends us into the world as witnesses to the truth of his love.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider And now, as our Savior Jesus taught us, we pray:

People Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever and ever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Presider Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

All Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

The Invitation to Communion

Presider We, St. Mark's, recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all.

Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

People All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

The Communion

Please gather one group at a time around the altar. Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister.

Music for Communion

Post Communion Prayer

Presider Together, let us pray.

All Spirit of Life, we thank you for disordering our boundaries and releasing our desires in this feast of delight: draw us out of hidden places and centers of conformity to feel your laughter and live your pleasure. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider Life is short, and we have but little time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and forever.

All Amen.

Dismissal

Presider Go into the world and know how much a tired and hurting world needs your strength and gladness, for there are deeds of compassion and courage that will never be done unless you do them; and words of hope and healing that will never be spoken unless you speak them. And now let us go forth into the world in peace, to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.

From the Office

1. Help needed for data clean up! St. Mark's is getting ready to move to a new membership database. Our current one is out of date and new technology can help us keep information current. However, we need to make sure our current records are accurate. Copies of the current directory will be available for you to check and correct with your current information at the table in the foyer. Please take a minute to stop by and update your information (even if you believe you've already given your information to the office).
2. Pledge Statements: Pledge statements were sent July 13th (via e-mail or through the mail if we do not have an e-mail address on file). If you have not received yours or wish to change your default from electronic to paper, please contact Patricia Schans. Outreach

6. Sip & Savor with CHGM at Eastern Market on Saturday, August 27th, 7-10 p.m.! Capitol Hill Group Ministry (CHGM) will hold its inaugural Sip & Savor event the evening of Saturday, August 27th at the historic Eastern Market's North Hall. Sip & Savor will be a lively celebration of local craft beer, food, and music--all in support of our homeless neighbors. Sip & Savor will replace our annual golf tournament as CHGM's major event fundraiser. We are excited to be able to include more of our community and to bring our major special event home to the Hill! Join us for unlimited food samples and beer tastings from many of the Capitol Hill area's best restaurants and breweries while you enjoy music performed by local artists and bid on fabulous silent auction prizes. For more information and to purchase tickets and sponsorships, visit <http://sipandsavor.chgm.net>. We'll see you there!
 7. Refugee Resettlement: What's happening? Five St. Mark's parishioners and representatives from other Capitol Hill churches attended a meeting with Lutheran Social Services to discuss plans to welcome a family from Syria, Iraq or Afghanistan to the US. Lutheran Church of the Reformation has made the commitment and is taking the lead for the Capitol Hill faith network to prepare. At St. Mark's, we have had conversations about the refugee crisis for a number of months and now we have an opportunity for partnership with the Lutherans, Presbyterians and other members of the Capitol Hill community. This is a global crisis and lending our support is consistent with our faith values. A family may arrive very soon, and help is urgently needed in the following areas:
 - Employment
 - Finance
 - Food and Clothing
 - Housing and Furnishings
 - Transportation
 - Welcome
- Please contact Karen Getman karen.getman@gmail.com, Mandy Paust paustak@gmails.com, or Maureen Shea mtshea@aol.com if you find an area of interest and we will contact you.
8. Monday, August 22 is Family Night with our friends at Capitol Hill Group Ministry. Family Night is a great (and fun) opportunity to deepen relationships with CHGM client families and staff in this important outreach to the community. Please join us for dinner, distribution of brand new school backpacks and singing in Baxter Hall, from 6 to 8 pm. Want to help? Here are three ways:
 - Bring a side dish for the dinner. Please be in touch with Marlan Green, (marlangreen@gmail.com) or 202-486-9624, to determine what to bring.
 - Contribute to backpack fund, contact Lisa Ramish, lisa.ramish@gmail.com or 202-315-6106.
 - Help host our guests, contact Stephanie Deutsch at scd@his.com or 202-547-8624.
 9. TODAY — ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING! The Fourth Annual Vigil for All Victims of Gun Violence is scheduled for December 14, 2016 at St. Mark's (the actual anniversary of the Sandy Hook massacre). We need help preparing for and hosting the vigil. If you are interested in helping with the event, please come to an organizational meeting on July 31st at 12:30 pm in the Rectors Room. There are a number of ways you can help out – media communications/advertising, recruiting volunteers to welcome and orient guests, vigil planning, and much more. The goal of this meeting is to form a planning committee with more extensive work in the fall. Food will be provided. Contact justi.schunior@stmarks.net for more information or questions.

10. VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR SUNDAY SUPPERS: Sunday Suppers is a local, non-profit that serves the homeless meals at two D.C. locations every Sunday night. Volunteers serve a hot meal and exchange conversation and fellowship in sit-down, table situations with people living on the street. There are no pre-requisites to volunteer; timing and length of your participation on any Sunday night is flexible. Join the group at 6:00 P.M. at 4th and K Streets, NW or at 11th and N Streets NW at 7:30 P.M. (concludes by 8:30 P.M.). For more information visit the website at <http://www.sundaysuppers.org> or speak with Jack Richards or Alix Pereira.
11. CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN SOUP KITCHEN VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: The Washington City Church of the Brethren (COB), located at the corner of N. Carolina Avenue and 4th Street, SE, needs volunteers to assist with their soup kitchen operations, which functions weekly on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 P.M. Volunteers provide assistance with food preparation, service, and clean up, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 P.M. Volunteers may opt for the entire process or choose a specific activity (prepping, serving or clean-up). You would deliver the lunches between 8 and 11 am Monday mornings to Shirley's Place at 1338 G St SE. These lunches have contributed to the fellowship necessary to build the needed trust for addressing hard personal issues. Contact Susan Sedgewick (jssedgewick@gmail.com) for more information and/or help in participating in this ministry. For more information and dates during the summer session, June and July, sign up here: <http://goo.gl/FM5MGY>.

Meanwhile, he has only been able to obtain sporadic work such as detailing cars, indoor carpet cleaning, raking yards, etc.). Except for these odd jobs, and contributions from a few parishioners, he has received no other financial support; his present situation is urgent. In her letter of recommendation, Michele described David as efficient, very diligent and hardworking with a passion for caring for the people of St. Mark's. To help him obtain part-time employment or to perform odd jobs for you or your neighbors, please contact Penny Farley (p3farley@verizon.net), Pete Eveleth (peter.eveleth@gmail.com) or Nat White (whitenat1938@gmail.com).

The Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome Guests!

We'd like to get to know you better!

We invite you to fill out this page, tear it off, and drop it into the offering plate or hand it to one of the greeters as you leave. Please take the rest of this service bulletin with you, so that you can refer to the service schedule, office directory, and information about upcoming events and classes at St. Mark's.

We hope you feel at home with us. If you have questions, please speak with the clergy or one of the greeters after the service. You can also call the office at any time and we will be happy to help you in any way we can.

Thank you for visiting St. Mark's today.

Go in peace and return often!
