The Honduras Cross, above the central altar platform, symbolizes St. Mark's connection with the broader Anglican Communion and our obligations to our sisters and brothers around the world, particularly with our sister congregations in the San Marcos Cluster in Honduras. Eileen Blumenthal and the 2000 Mission to Honduras designed the cross, and Eileen commissioned its construction in Honduras as a gift to St. Mark's community .

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

9:00 am	Holy Eucharist (Family Eucharist is celebrated the second Sunday of most months)
9:00 am	Children's Chapel (not offered when Family Eucharist is celebrated at 9:00 am)
10:00 am	Sermon Seminar
11:15 am	Holy Eucharist

While greeting each other is important, we ask that you do so outside the Nave or near the doors so that others can have quiet time.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Opening Sentences

Presider Gracious God, your love and justice will last for ever, fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,

People Great is your name. Great is your love.

Presider Holy God,

People Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

Silence is observed.

The Collect

Presider God be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

All Crossbound God, nothing protects you from open sky and beckoning grave: teach us to leave behind the fear that kills what is different, our love for what is dead and safe; may we set our face like you to find our true home, our unexpected city of peace, your fearless life; through Jesus Christ, who will not turn back. Amen.

The Hebrew Scripture 2 Kings 2:1-2, 6-14

When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.

When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit." He responded, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not." As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, "Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

He picked up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. He took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, saying, "Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" When he had struck the water, the water was parted to the one side and to the other, and Elisha went over.

Reader Let us hear what the Spirit says to us.
People Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed.

The Holy Gospel Luke 9:51-62

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus according to Luke.
People Glory to you, O Christ.

When the days drew near for Jesus to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village.

As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus.
People Praise to you, O Christ.

The Homily

The Reverend R. Justice Schunior

Music for Meditation

A period of silence is observed.

An Affirmation

Presider Let us affirm our faith together:
People We believe in God the Creator,
 By whom every person in heaven and on earth is named.
We believe in God the Son,
 who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love.
We believe in God the Holy Spirit,
 who strengthens us with power from on high.
We believe in one God: Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Leader God of love and compassion, you are always more ready to hear and help than we are to pray; help us to know that you are with us now and always. We pray for all who come to your church with hopes and fears, all who come with special needs, that in you they may find new hope. We remember all who thirst for God, we pray for pilgrims and seekers.

Lord, we wait upon you

People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We pray for our troubled world, for places of oppression, tyranny and violence. We remember all who suffer through war or natural disasters. We ask your blessing upon the hungry and the homeless, all who have no place to call their own.

Lord, we wait upon you

People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We give thanks for all who have shared their love and peace with us; we pray for our homes and our loved ones. We pray for homes where there is trouble, for destitute families, for those who have been evicted or driven out of their homes. We pray for homes where there is abuse or neglect.

Lord, we wait upon you

People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We remember before you all who are not at peace with themselves or their neighbors, all who are troubled in body, mind or spirit. We pray for all who feel despised or rejected, all who walk in fear and in darkness. We pray for members of our community who are ill, who are in pain, emotionally or physically.

Lord, we wait upon you

People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We give thanks that you are our strength in times of weakness; you deliver us from the power of death. We pray for loved ones departed this life.

Lord, we wait upon you

People You are our helper and deliverer.

Leader We invite all to offer prayers of petition, intercession, or thanksgiving silently or if aloud, ending with "This is my prayer," to which all will respond, "Amen."

A time for individual prayers is observed.

Leader Let us pray.

People We offer our prayers in the faith that you, O God, love us, that Jesus our risen brother walks with us, and that the Holy Spirit strengthens us. Amen.

A Prayer of Confession

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is observed.

People Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

Presider God forgives you; forgive yourself and go in peace.

People Amen.

The Peace

Presider God's peace be always with you.

People And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Eucharistic Prayer

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider God of wind and flame, we praise your wild beauty flying free. Your spirit nurtured life in outrageous diversity; she raised up judges to protect the weak, made kings dance in ecstasy, and prophets burn with holy anger.

Through the Spirit, the Word became flesh and the world was called to hear his voice; she drove him to the desert his first sure step to victory over death and division.

When he left his followers, she was poured out on all flesh and crossed the line between male and female, slave and free, Jew and gentile.

She is with us now, bringing Christ near filling our worship, guiding us in hope.

Therefore, with all God's people, and all who have tasted the Spirit of life, with the thirsty and the cold, and all who long to dream again, we worship your glory as heaven touches earth:

Sanctus

All Holy, Holy, Holy Lord,
God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are filled with your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Presider O God, we bid the breath of your Spirit fall upon us and upon these gifts that they may be to us the body and blood of our lord and brother, Jesus Christ; who on the night before he died gathered with his friends. Calling them to his table, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and said: "This, my body, I give to you. Eat and remember me."

After supper, he took the cup, saying: "This, my blood, I pour out for you and for all. Drink and remember me." As on that night, so here and now, Jesus offers himself to us.

Great is the mystery of faith.

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider Therefore, in our partaking, filled with his life-giving presence, we proclaim him anew as the one we follow, the one who sends us into the world as witnesses to the truth of his love.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider And now, as our Savior Jesus taught us, we pray:
People Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever and ever.
Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
All Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

The Invitation to Communion

Presider We, St. Mark's, recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all. Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,
All All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

The Communion

Please gather, one group at a time, around the altar. Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister

Music for Communion

Post Communion Prayer

Presider Together, let us pray.
All Spirit of Life, we thank you for disordering our boundaries and releasing our desires in this feast of delight: draw us out of hidden places and centers of conformity to feel your laughter and live your pleasure. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider Gracious God, send us anywhere you would have us go, only go there with us. Place upon us any burden you desire, only stand by us to sustain us. Break any tie that binds us, except the tie that binds us to you. And the blessing of God, Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer, be upon you this day and always.
All Amen.

Dismissal

Presider

Alleluia! Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People

Thanks be to God. Alleluia!

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.

✠ ✠ ✠

Following the service please join us for Holy Happy Hour, at which we share conversation, food, & drink.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Announcements, not to exceed 150 words, are to be submitted to diana.church@stmarks.net by 5:00 pm on the Tuesday preceding the Sunday you wish the announcement to run.

Official Parish Calendar online at: <http://www.stmarks.net/calendar/>

From the Office

1. NEW WEBSITE IS ALMOST HERE! In just a matter of days, we will be launching the brand new St. Mark's website! The site is the product of more than six months of work by our fabulous Communications Working Group. Huge kudos to Thia Hamilton, Martha Huizenga, Justi Schunior, Mike Townsend and Christina White, who partnered with our local vendor, Openbox9, to create and develop the new site. The primary focus of the new site is attracting newcomers and visitors, but it will also be the home for all the usual important information for members. It is organized in a totally different way than our current site, so it will take some getting used to. Once it is launched, please take some time to explore the site and provide feedback. Keep in mind that not everything will be perfect and some parts of the site will have only the minimum information at launch, but we will continue to fill in the gaps in the weeks ahead. If you are the leader of a parish group or activity and want to update the information or have your group added to the site, please contact Mike Townsend at orangemike@verizon.net. Thanks to the entire community for your patience and support, and to the Endowment Board for the financial support of this much-needed project.

Outreach

5. A SOUP KITCHEN THANK YOU! Special thanks to our sandwich making volunteers, who last Sunday prepared 200 sandwiches for needy persons in our area! We greatly appreciate the efforts of Kathy Tatko, Margie Ware, Mike Borofsky, Ben Schabily and Lena Lupica, who helped Soup Kitchen Co-Managers Jack Richards and Alix Periera with this important program. The sandwiches were delivered that evening to Sunday Suppers in downtown DC.

6. Back by Popular Demand: New Story Leadership -- On Wednesday, June 29, come to Baxter Hall (7 -9 pm) to meet courageous Israelis and Palestinians (ages 21-31) who are in Washington with New Story Leadership's 7th annual summer program. At home, they face physical, societal, and psychological barriers to meeting and befriending "the other." Here they live in pairs, work together, and learn critical skills in empathetic listening, dialogue, and cooperation. All will be present on the 29th; four will share their personal stories, the challenges they face, and their visions for the future. Read more about the team here: www.newstoryleadership.org/team-of-2016 The program will be followed by a reception with light refreshments. Free and open to all. Sponsored by the Mid-East Working Group.
7. VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR SUNDAY SUPPERS: Sunday Suppers is a local, non-profit that serves the homeless meals at two D.C. locations every Sunday night. You would deliver the lunches between 8 and 11 am Monday mornings to Shirley's Place at 1338 G St SE. These lunches have contributed to the fellowship necessary to build the needed trust for addressing hard personal issues. Contact Susan Sedgewick (jssedgewick@gmail.com) for more information and/or help in participating in this ministry. For more information and dates during the summer session, June and July, sign up here: <http://goo.gl/FM5MGY>.
