The Honduras Cross, above the central altar platform, symbolizes St. Mark's connection with the broader Anglican Communion and our obligations to our sisters and brothers around the world, particularly with our sister congregations in the San Marcos Cluster in Honduras. Eileen Blumenthal and the 2000 Mission to Honduras designed the cross, and Eileen commissioned its construction in Honduras as a gift to St. Mark's community.

She and her husband have two school-aged sons, and their beloved family dog, Lola.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Opening Sentences

Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
People Glory to God forever and ever. Amen.

Collect

Presider God be with you.
People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

All God of unearthly wisdom, we take offense at your humanity; we lose our faith that you can change us: come to us who are your own; convert our inward-looking eyes and take us on the road where all is lost and all is gained, through Jesus Christ, the prophet. Amen.

The people sit.

The Hebrew Bible The 2nd Book of Samuel (7:1-14a)

When the king was settled in his house, and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, "See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent." Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that you have in mind; for the Lord is with you."

But that same night the word of the Lord came to Nathan: Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the Lord: Are you the one to build me a house to live in? I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle. Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?" Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the Lord of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel; and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly, from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house. When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.
People Thanks be to God!

Praise Reflection adapted from 1 John 4:7-11

Presider Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God.

People Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.

Presider In this the love of God was revealed among us, that God sent Godself into the world, so that we might live through Jesus Christ.

People In this is love, not that we loved God but that God loved us, and sent the divine Word that sins might be forgiven.

Presider Beloved, since God loved us so much, we ought also to love one another.

People For if we love one another, God abides in us, and God's love will be perfected in us.

The Gospel Mark 6:30-34, 53-56

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Immigrant's Apostles' Creed

All I believe in Almighty God, who guided the people in exile and in exodus, the God of Joseph in Egypt and Daniel in Babylon, the God of foreigners and immigrants.

I believe in Jesus Christ, a displaced Galilean, who was born away from his people and his home, who fled his country with his parents when his life was in danger.

When he returned to his own country he suffered under the oppression of Pontius Pilate, the servant of a foreign power. Jesus was persecuted, beaten, tortured, and unjustly condemned to death.

But on the third day Jesus rose from the dead, not as a scorned foreigner but to offer us citizenship in God's kingdom.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the eternal immigrant from God's kingdom among us, who speaks all languages, lives in all countries, and reunites all races.

I believe that the Church is the secure home for foreigners and for all believers.

I believe that the communion of saints begins when we embrace all God's people in all their diversity.

I believe in forgiveness, which makes us all equal before God, and in reconciliation, which heals our brokenness.

I believe that in the Resurrection, God will unite us as one people in which all are distinct and all are alike at the same time.

I believe in life eternal, in which no one will be a foreigner but all will be citizens of the kingdom where God reigns forever and ever. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessor Let us pray for the Church: that we may know God's presence and commit ourselves to living God's radical love in this world. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us pray for our nation and for all nations, that our leaders—especially Donald, Muriel, Ralph, and Larry—may be imbued with a spirit of compassion, justice and wisdom. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us pray for our planet, its animals and plants, the whole ecosystem upon which our very lives depend. May we treat it with the respect and love which we owe to all creation. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us pray for the whole Washington area, especially those who are hungry, homeless, or in other need. May we feel God's call to care for our neighbors. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us pray especially for those in trouble or danger, whether chronic or acute: especially those in medical care, in prison or jail, those serving with armed forces, and any we now name, either silently or aloud . . . [the congregation is invited to offer prayers at this time] . . . God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us give thanks for all the good in our lives, celebrating with each other our happiness, especially that good news we now share, whether silently or aloud . . . [the congregation is invited to offer prayers at this time] . . . God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor And let us pray for all who have died, celebrating the gift of their lives and remembering them before God, especially those we now name, either silently or aloud . . . [the congregation is invited to offer prayers at this time] . . . God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

The Peace

Presider The peace of God be always with you.

People And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Eucharistic Prayer

Presider God is always present.

People God is here, among us!

Presider Lift up your hearts

People We lift them up to the living God.

Presider Let us give thanks to our sovereign God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all of creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generations, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might:
heaven and earth are full of your glory!
Hosanna in the highest!
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord;
Hosanna in the highest!

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said:

“Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said:

“Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with Mark and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Presider And now, as Jesus taught us, we pray:

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Presider Alleluia, Christ our Passover has sacrificed for us!

People Therefore let us keep the feast! Alleluia!

The Invitation to Communion

Presider We recognize this as God’s table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God’s food for us and for all. Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

The Communion

Please gather, as one group, around the altar.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister

Post Communion Prayer

Presider Together, let us pray.

All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider May God give you Grace never to sell yourself short. Grace to risk something big for something good. Grace to remember that the world is too dangerous for anything but truth and too small for anything but Love. The Blessing of a Gracious God, Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier be with us now and remain with us this day and always.

All Amen!

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go in peace to love and serve the Holy One!

People Thanks be to God.

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.
